

Direct Debt Payoff / Lien Payoff Overview

HELOC proceeds can be used to pay off debt for consolidation or qualifying. The Direct Debt payoff option can be used to pay off credit cards, personal loans, auto loans, most home improvement loans & the most junior lien.

Direct Debt Payoff Criteria

- Account(s) must be listed on soft pull and matched to Method/Intellidebt (debt payoff vendor)
- Account(s) must be in good standing
- Revolving/credit card debt payoff – Account(s) will remain open
- Revolving account payment(s) are excluded from DTI when meeting the following requirements:
 - 680 minimum credit score
 - No revolving accounts in charge-off status
 - ≤ 20% credit card monthly payment to stated income ratio
- Installment loans (non-mortgage) may be excluded if open for at least 12 months
- State restrictions apply to lien payoff. Not allowed in DE, HI, ID, MD, SC, TX, UT, WV.

Debt Payoff during Offer Selection:

- After an offer is selected, if debts are eligible to be paid off with proceeds the Loan Breakdown will display a Get Started button
- Eligible accounts may be selected from the Available list for pay off
- Accounts that are Unavailable to be paid off will be listed on a separate tab and include the reason for ineligibility
- Manual debt entry is not allowed, debts must be matched via Intellidebt
- Borrower can make adjustments to selections up to Final Offer Selection stage

Note: An offer must be selected to generate the Loan Breakdown with debt payoff option

Lien Payoff

If borrower chooses a lien to be paid off with HELOC proceeds, the following process will be initiated automatically:

- Payoff request is processed through Stewart Title
- Stewart will obtain payoff statement, fund disbursement to the lien holder, and validate lien release
- In cases where Stewart Title requires assistance from the borrower to obtain payoff, the Loan Officer contact will be notified via email
 - Notes will be available on the portal detailing what is required
- Borrower can proceed through income and identity verification while payoff is being obtained
- File will be placed in Payoff Request Pending status – can take up to 14 days
- Once payoff is received, final disbursement figures will be calculated and final underwriting completed

Stewart Title may reach out to the MLO on the file to help facilitate contact with the borrower.
